Notice regarding Listing on the Tokyo Stock Exchange Prime Market

Socionext Inc. (head office: Yokohama-shi, Kanagawa; Representative Director, Chairman, President and CEO: Masahiro Koezuka; the "Company") hereby announces that it was newly listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange Prime Market today.

In the logic semiconductor industry, through our distinctive "Solution SoC" business model, the Company focuses on developing "optimal" custom SoCs (see Note below) with our cuttingedge technologies for customers that require distinctive SoCs in order to differentiate their services and products from competitors. The value of the Company is founded on realizing innovation together with customers as SoC partners by supporting customers that require distinctive SoCs in order to achieve differentiation and connecting them with the semiconductor ecosystem that provides the latest technologies including IP, EDA tools, software, foundries and OSATs. The Company endeavors to contribute to the realization of a prosperous society by providing new value to customers and also to the people all over the world.

Note: "SoC" stands for System on a Chip, meaning an integrated circuit that combines all or almost all of the components and functionality of a computer or electronics system onto a single chip. Custom SoC means an SoC that has been designed for a specific customer.
